

Do not change anything to lessen th effect of the Indiana Telephone Privacy Act. Prior to the Act we would receive 4 to 6 calls a week. These calls would usually come during dinner or in the evening and disturb a television show. Since the Act went into effect we have not been bothered at all.